

---

Finding Professional Liability Insurance Providers

It is the obligation of practitioners to find an insurance provider that provides the professional liability insurance required for a C of A. During this process, practitioners can seek recommendations, consult business directories and use online resources such as search engines to determine if a provider's insurance policy meets the C of A's coverage needs.